THE Tower

1958

PRESENTED BY THE CLASS OF 1959

THE HEART is the source of life and the symbol of love.

The Heart of Christ is the fount of a sacred life and the living symbol of Love itself.

The Sacred Heart is the core of Manhattanville,— it is thence we draw our way of life,

a life of study and fun and prayer,

our way of worship that turns each day's work and play into prayer.

A life based on Love is steeped in holiness:

if we live in Love, we give of ourselves and we will give Christ.

MANHATTANVILLE COLLEGE OF THE SACRED HEART
PURCHASE, NEW YORK

OF MANHATTANVILLE

TO HIS EMINENCE
FRANCIS CARDINAL SPELLMAN WITH HEARTFELT GRATITUDE
FOR HIS VISION AND COURAGE HIS FATHERLY INTEREST IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF MANHATTANVILLE COLLEGE OF THE SACRED HEART
OCTOBER 27, 1957.

His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman received many honors in 1957 on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his Episcopal Consecration. The Cardinal's world-wide apostolate paid tribute to the integration, in his person, of vision and practicality.

Manhattanville's own tribute to His Eminence was the dedication of its new dormitory, Spellman Hall, last autumn.

It was a significant dedication.

The Cardinal had showed a vital interest in the Manhattanville of Convent Avenue; he was instrumental in establishing this same Manhattanville in its new surroundings in Purchase, and his continued benevolence is apparent in his frequent visits to our growing campus.

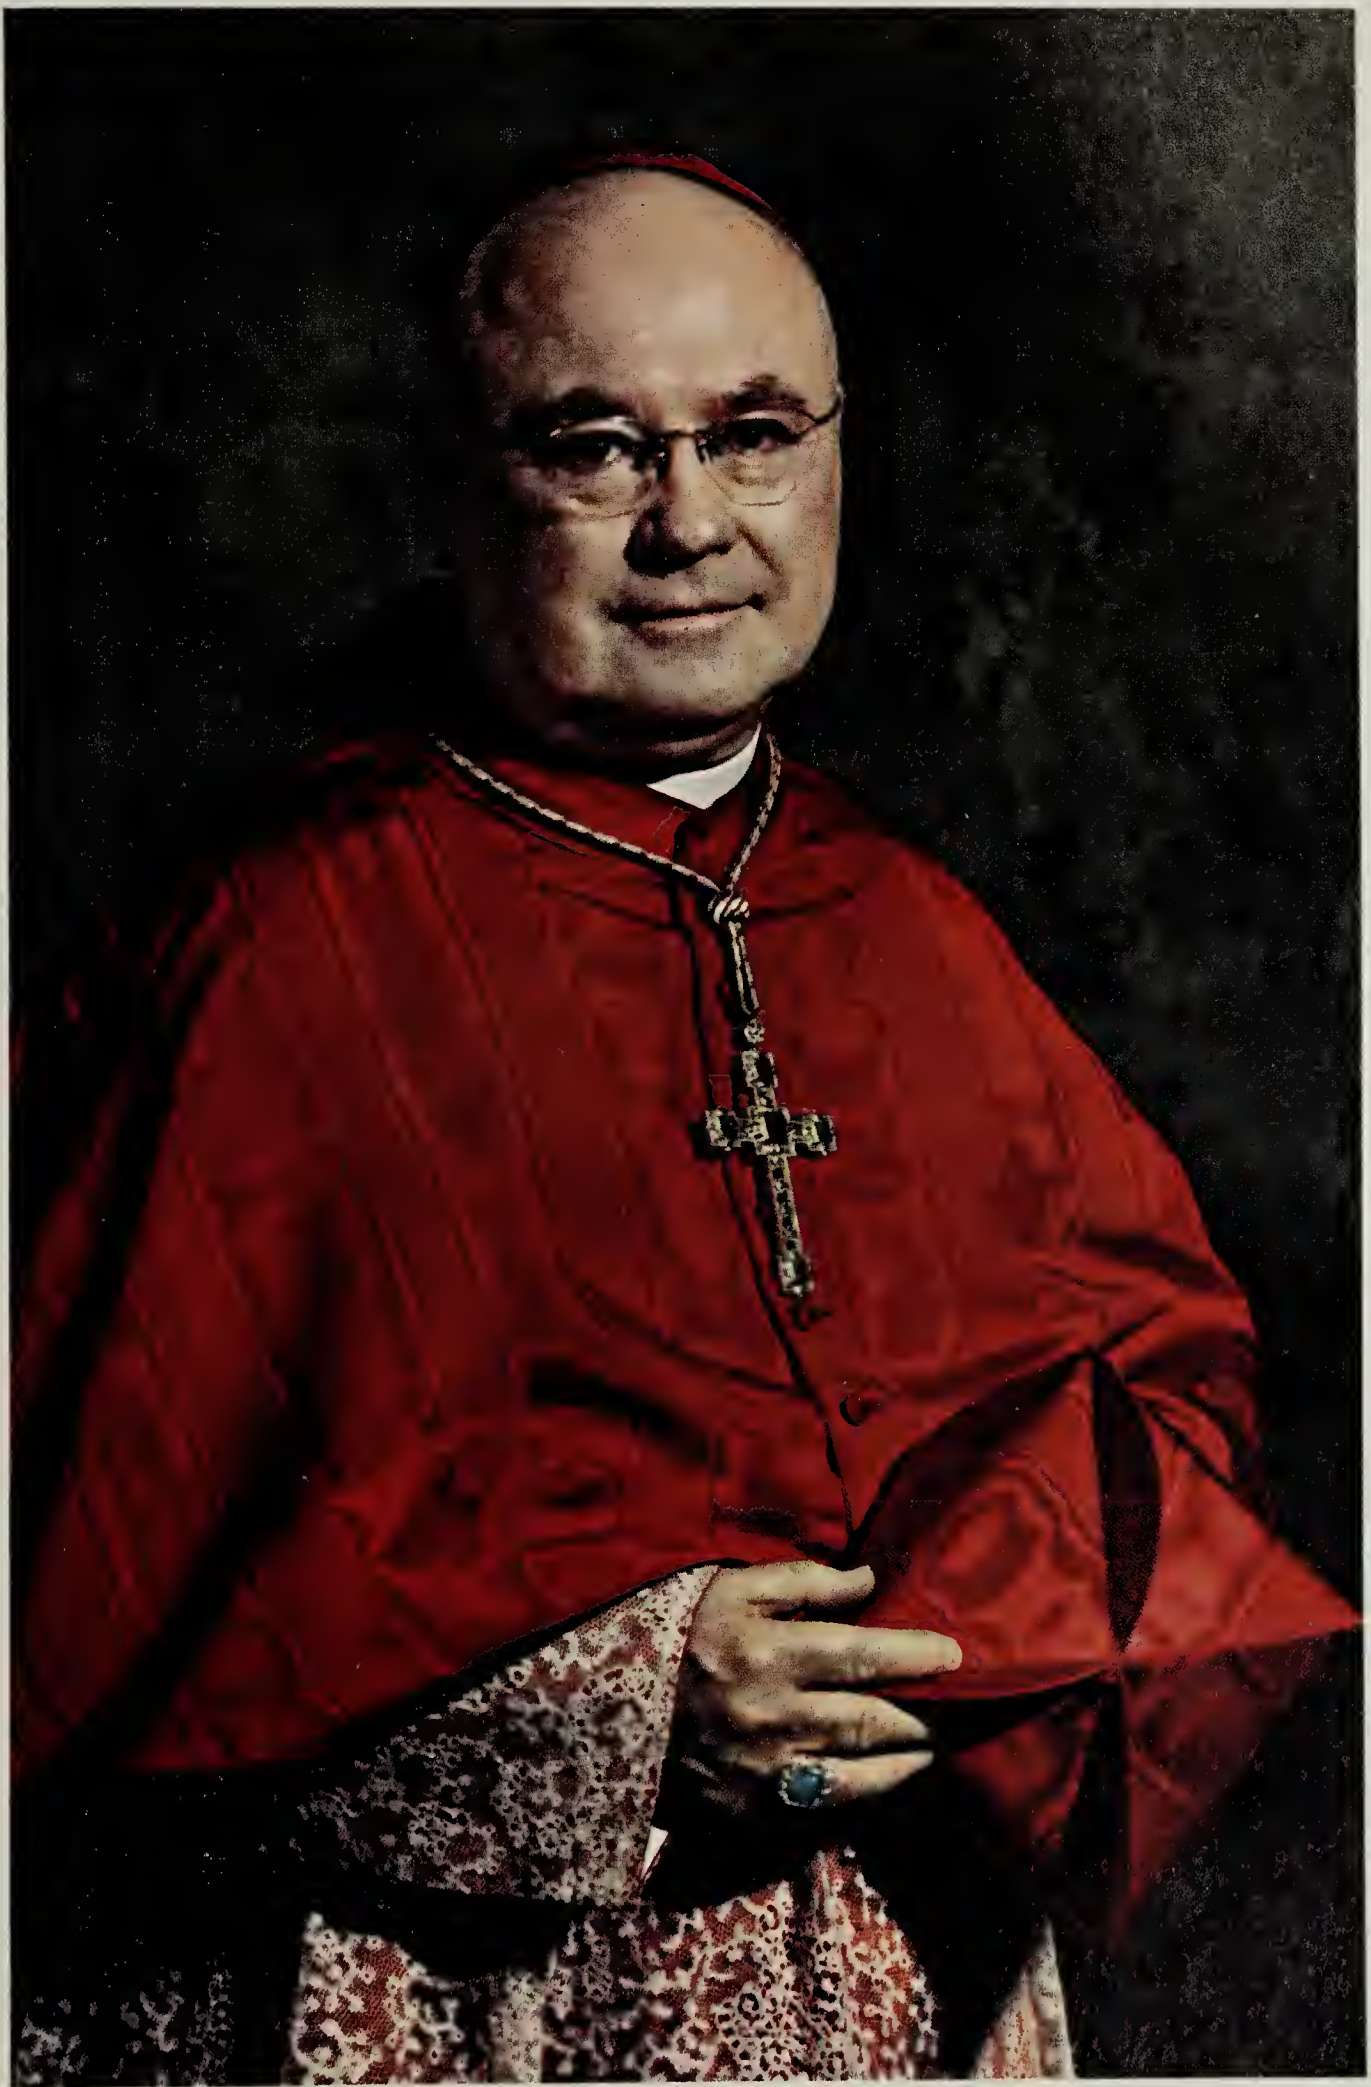

This is but a fraction of our debt to His Eminence.

We owe him reverence and appreciation, not only as a benefactor of Manhattanville, but also as a militant exemplar of American Catholicism and a Shepherd of tireless vigilance.

With profound gratitude and respect, we dedicate the 1958 Tower to His Eminence.

We are privileged to use the Cardinal's own words as a timely message, not only for the benefit of our own graduates, but for all Christian Youth.

*"Let us make haste—but only back to Christ;
Let us go on—but by a prayerful way;
Let us arise with all the noble souls
Who form the mighty host of God's elect,
Who heed His voice and humbly follow Him.
America has need of men like these."*

In our years at Manhattanville we are given much and we attempt to give of ourselves in return.
The members of our faculty offer the priceless gifts of their knowledge and talents—they inspire us as living examples of Catholic intellectualism.
Especially in Senior year,
when all the work of the past years is synthesized, do we really begin to appreciate the immensity of our debt to them.

Each of us receives a certain character from the class to which she belongs.
Whether that character be enthusiasm, ingenuity, geniality, or some other,
it is inescapable and inevitably makes itself felt in our lives.
But every class is composed of individuals, each contributing her person to the whole.
We mold and are molded by our individual classes and by our individual classmates, as well.

In a larger sense, however, we are united as members of the same college.
Through a oneness of purpose and a common devotion to the Sacred Heart
we are bound together.
Whether our contacts be academic, extra-curricular, or purely social, friendships offered and accepted transcend the ties of class and group and we receive six hundredfold our initial gift of self.

and many a campus first.
Manhattanville life begins September 13, 1956.
Orientation, as usual;
the unusual, Service Week.
Class time limited to Monday through Friday—
a blissful morning's sleep.
'60 presents "News Around the World;"
leads in bruises at Stowe;
conquers at Field Day.
A rainy Baby Day produces
the Purchase Zoo.

*Holy Mary,
 Mother of God and Immaculate Virgin,
 I consecrate to you, as a pledge of the most ardent love, my soul and my body, all that I am and all that I have.
 I confide myself to your motherly protection, with the firm determination to follow your inspirations and example.
 I will strive to live a truly Christian life, based on the principles of the Gospel, in a spirit of detachment, purity and submission.
 I promise to be in everything a true child of Holy Church, and under her guidance to devote myself generously to the work of Redemption of His DIVINE HEART.
 Receive me then, O Mary, ever Virgin, as your servant and your child.
 Keep me faithful to this consecration.
 Help me to live truly as a member of the Mystical Body of Jesus Christ, and as an apostle of His SACRED HEART.
 And do not abandon me at the hour of my death.      Amen.*

CHILDREN OF MARY

The Sodality

carries on the work of Divine Love in the members' own lives, in the college,
 in the whole world.
 Centered in the Sacred Heart, their days gain strength through the sacraments, inspiration through meditation, and intimacy with Mary through the Rosary.

Personifying the spirit of the Sodality . . .
 Sheila Hennessy, Chairman.

December 8,

a special day . . .

Aspirants become full-fledged Sodalists.

The medal is worn with honor and gratitude, recalling the lifelong consecration—Always.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Mirrors . . .
of Manhattanville.
Look into one and see reflected there its students.
Apace with college growth, their ideas, policies expand.
Taddy Corley—administrator with the "velvet touch."
Mother Dowd—
moderator of the well-knit committee.
Branching out—
The House Committee lends its aid.

Twelve members . . .
a dozen policy makers,
But every student a participator.
Stern faces at "times demeritable," but . . .
"the quality of mercy"
inspires a show and "amnesty"
for St. Patrick's Day.
Top priority:
The Constitution
REVISED to be a Constitution for the future.

Who is the watch-bird watching you?
Welfare.

When thinking of social ostracism, who comes to mind?
Welfare.

It demands neatness—
It pleads: "Above all, be ladies!"—
It censures gumchewing, "cutting the Parade."
The ever recurrent query:
IS THIS CENSURABLE??
Led by Claire Miller, Welfare perseveres—ever organizing, ever co-ordinating.
Object? Club activity—integrated.

THE RESULT:
gracious living.

Dramatic Club

On stage,
     back stage,
     the show goes on!
 The lead—Regina Fucito.
 With sensitive interpretation, each job
     is integrated to produce pure drama.
 There was a party in the fall—
     a "Cocktail Party."
 Thank you, T. S.!
     "Mary Queen of Scots"—grand lady of the Interclass Play Contest, of the Intercollegiate Play Festival.
 The Dramatic Workshop—Manhattanville's dramatics mature;
     speakers in the field, panels,
         group discussions
     help it grow.

DRAMATIC WORKSHOP
Sunday, February 9, 1958

Richard Hayes    Cleanth Brooks
Jose Quintero

OFFICERS; front row, beginning seventh from right, left to right:

"Good evening, ladies! . . . we have much work to do."

The Glee Club—one of Manhattanville's busiest organizations, but never tiresome.

What could be tedious with Mother Morgan conducting?
Industry and humor,
the qualities of its leader are adopted by the club.

This year
Christmas Carols and the Spring Concert plus joint concerts with Holy Cross and Georgetown employ the energies of a growing organization.

CLUB

K. Olson, President    F. Cartwright, Vice President    B. Bergman, Librarian

The singing members of the college are busy with:

“Let’s hear the ‘Seconds’ alone in that measure.”

“Does everyone know Dormi Non Piangere by now?”

“We’re singing ‘The King and I’. . . . How romantic!”

but busy also with:

“Hey, pass the peppermints!”

“Can we wear black in the Carols? . . . but I don’t have a red or green dress!”

“a closed weekend and I was going skiing!”

The polished and delightful performances—result of these efforts—

a tribute to Mother’s “know how” and Karen’s efficiency.

The Glee Club—

one of the college’s most successful enterprises.

SEATED AT ORGAN: J. O'Brien, Librarian    C. Bair, President    C. Castrilli, Vice President

Pius X Choir

"The elite of the musical world" combine with Glee Club to make Manhattanville music-minded.
 Thoughts are occupied with the "Credo"—"Sanctus"—"Benedictus."
 But Pius X's repertoire extends far beyond the realm of Gregorian Chant.
 There is room for:
     "To a Snowflake" . . .                      "Deo Gratias" . . .
                                     "Huswifery"—
 high hopes for "A Jubilant Song" and "Della Joia."
 And there's humour, inserted by Mother Morgan imploring: "Please don't rattle the candy wrappers!"
     beseeching: "Be quiet, Asam-child!"
 appraising: "This is so subtle—the college will never get it!"
                                     extolling: "You're amazing!"
 And always,
 through 12/8 time, Missa Cantatas, concerts with Yale's Thomas More Choir, weddings, funerals, recordings at NBC,
 There is the reminder,
     "Make this a prayer;"
 And the response:
     "Let us sing the praises of the Lord."

Brownson Honor Society

Intellectual currents—

past, present, and future—

Tapped;

a living exchange of thought.

The Brownson Honor Society . . .

headed by Anne Dooling and Marcia Harte.

Faculty nomination and written competition determine membership.

Guests from the faculty add their interest in ideas.

Meetings are marked by informal discussion on topics intellectual:

his destiny,

creative integrity . . . .

Convictions for the future shaped by an awareness of the past.

MAN,

K. Smith   T. Kiernan   M. Wheeler   M. Plater   R. Cannon   J. Coryn

Philosophy Commission

Startling insights and stimulating discussions—
“Civic Responsibility and the Student”— Democracy—
Natural Law—
Freedom—topics challenging philosophical debate in their practical applications.

Chairman Martha Wheeler proves an earnest administrator—
Mother Clark, Moderator, a conscientious sponsor.

In November: a workshop—concerned with “Problems of Today’s Citizens.”

In March: THE SYMPOSIUM keynotes the year’s research—
The components:

Yves Simon, guest speaker,
the winning student papers,
illumination by distinguished professors, provoke thought.

In this year of regional leadership Manhattanville sponsored an active and enthusiastic program.

Catholic Action with a new look—reorganized, redefined, rededicated as Manhattanville Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

The aim is the same: Alive Apostleship

as TEACHER,

HELPER,

“FISHER,” or

APOSTLE OF GOOD WILL.

Clarisse Owens and the Executive Committee direct student zeal,

Financial Co-ordinator Judy Whalen manages monetary matters,

All channel gifts of time and effort supporting campus activities and world-wide charitable endeavors.

NSA

Two national student organizations—moulders of public opinion through intellectual stimulation.

NSA—an association of American students exchanging beneficial ideas.

NFCCS—a federation of young Catholic men and women sharing views on intercollegiate apostolates.

Fifty-eight brings vitalizing changes to Manhattanville delegations.

Both acclaim weekly meetings, jointly held for increased unity.

Alternating chairwomen, Carol LaBonte and Olha Dyhdalevych skillfully lead discussions of current problems.

Group benefits: Bermuda at Easter and . . .

the raffle of a European Tour—a chance for all.

Whether occupied with recreational plans or more serious projects,
They are always aware and alert.

Faculty – Student Administration

A newcomer to the campus—but long awaited,
The Faculty-Student Administration Committee exchanges ideas balancing faculty wisdom with student freshness to produce satisfying innovations on traditional subjects.

Steering Committee

Steering Committee prepares the agenda for College Council, helps voice student opinion diligently and efficaciously.

Concrete contributions by the committee and its leader, Kit Collins, include Hall Committees,
Activities Board,
Self-evaluation.

Steering Committee—
the efficient channel of a selective few.

Dance Committee

Shall we dance?

Join the gay social whirl—

Proms—spring and winter;

informals in between,

planned and executed

with charm and grace

by the Dance Committee.

Mother Morgan advised,

Susie Seymour surprised,

the Committee devised

Ways to encourage the guests to MIX!

“That blind date might not be a Prince Charming, but then again he might.”

Athletic Association

Steel girders no longer silhouetted against the sky.
Raking parties, freezing walks cease.
Kennedy Building completed, dedicated.

Court . . . .

Alleys . . . .

Pool . . . !

A. A. rejoices.

Cathy Gilbane leads—an enthusiastic association organizes

Interclass hockey, . . .

basketball, . . .

Aquacade, . . .      skating . . . .

Fun for everyone—dreams at last fulfilled.

Debating Club

Always time for a debate—

Always time to sharpen our wits—

The Debating Club offers a legitimate outlet for our opinions.

Dale Acker, a competent chairman, worked closely with Mother Clark and Dr. McClelland,

Moderators willing to give professional advice and directive inspiration.

"Water, please!"

"Resolve . . . ."

"Any questions from the floor?"

"On the affirmative side . . . ."

Debate is an awakening pastime—

Its fruits will continue long after the vocal arguments have dispersed.

To be alive, to be aware, to evaluate—

These are its objects.

C. Phillips   F. Sweeney   L. Gilson   G. Robinson

The Theatre Committee—

the on-campus ticket agency—

Organized by Cathy Phillips and Mother Bourneuf, this club offers

Thursday nights at the Met

Callas . . . Tebaldi . . . Rigoletto . . . Die Walkure

The theatre—on and off Broadway

Look Homeward, Angel

Auntie Mame

Long Day's Journey

From Mike Todd's grand tour of the world to Rudolph Serkin at the County Civic Center—

From Shakespeare to My Fair Lady,

we can say—

Manhattanville was there.

The Centurion

“WHERE
is your article? It was due three days ago!!!”
Echoes of this question penetrate the atmosphere as would-be journalists struggle with Deadlines,—Copy,—Layout,—Heads.
Our Fair Lady?
Pat Quayle, competent Editor.
Trips to Rye follow nightly sessions.
REWRITE! REWRITE! REWRITE!
“Cut this to 150; that article has to be longer.”
The Freshman-Sophomore Issue shows promise for the future.
College happenings, current-interest topics,—NEWS!
The issue goes to press,
and,
at Manhattanville
“Everybody reads THE CENTURION!”

The Essay

M. Martinez   E. Foley   S. Francis   C. Acampora   K. Larkin   M. Harte   M. J. Murphy   M. G. Reardon   A. M. Walsh
K. Hynes, Business Manager   C. Butler, Editor   S. Mazzola, Art Editor

"Essay" means try.

And any member of the Essay Board assures you that is her policy.

Twice each year original efforts—as varied a representation of the college as possible—they publish proudly.

It's YOUR name they want to see in print!

The group

elected from each class

working with Celia Butler, Marcia Harte, and Mother Cunningham,
co-ordinated their abilities for a most successful
"try" this year.

English Club

Exploring literature,
     English Club members experience life,
                     as portrayed by the masters.
 A significant prerequisite:
     interest in selective reading and critical discussions.
 Acceptance for membership hinges on an original piece of writing:
     a critique, or a poem.
 Mother Williams and Maryann Gooley lead considerations of Cozzens,
             Camus,
                     and their contemporaries.
 Participation encompasses all students at the annual masquerade contest—a colorful representation of the vitality of literature.

In the International Club, headed by Angie Mendoza, students and faculty introduce to one another Native customs, costumes, and dances,— toujours gai!

"England and the Queen"—an informative lecture by Miss Cave.
Dr. de Arango encourages greater understanding of the cultural, intellectual, and social contributions of other nations.

Current Affairs Forum

At the knocking of the gavel—

"The News of the Week in Review."

Under the guidance of Chairman Irene Bianchi and Moderator Mother Whalen debates, lectures, off-campus projects bring members
AWARENESS

The Mission Club's current interest—in relation to the Fide Donum.
Knowledge of and prayer for missionaries is fostered competently by Marie Garesche, guided by Mother Williams, encouraged by zealous speakers.
The innumerable stamps collected and bandages prepared Only hint at the wonderful work accomplished.

OUR SINCERE THANKS TO:

Reverend Mother Mulqueen and Mother O'Byrne—for their prayers and interest.

Mother Cavanagh—for her enthusiastic backing plus Room 70.

Mother Hargrove—for turning a penetrating spotlight on the Class of 1958.

Mother Bourneuf—for her never-failing moral support.

Mother Brady—for supplying us with vital college statistics.

Mother O'Gorman and Mother Dowd—for their outstanding candids.

The Publishers, Baker, Jones, Hausauer, Inc.—for their obviously superior production of our 1958 project.

Mr. William E. Sloane—for his patience and sense of humor in the midst of his impossible task: getting us organized.

Mr. Celest E. Coryn—for his "artful" supervision and helpful criticism which gave our work the professional touch.

Charles Léon—for one hundred-six magnificent Senior portraits.

Mr. Monty Everett—for his self-evident talent for group and architectural photography.

Our Patrons and Advertisers—for their immediate and enthusiastic support, which made the 1958 Tower possible.

PUT YOUR MOVING AND STORAGE PROBLEMS IN THE HANDS OF EXPERTS

● The best move you'll ever make — before you make any move at all — is to look into the free, pre-planned moving and storage services of Morgan & Brother — Manhattan Storage Company. Famous since 1851 for household moving and storage, these experts offer you the ultimate economy that comes of dealing with the leaders in the field. At no extra cost, you get: the most modern moving equipment . . . highly skilled and trained packers and movers . . . and the largest storage warehouses in the world . . . dustless even-temperated rooms and vaults where storage is a science and handling of your precious possessions is a fine art!
